"Taste" our New "Rimon" service on Second Day of Rosh HaShanah

One of the traditional fruits we eat on Rosh HaShanah is the pomegranate – rimon in Hebrew. When we eat it, we express our hope that “our merits may increase like the seeds of the rimon.” Tradition teaches that the seeds in the rimon number 613 – the same as the count of mitzvot (commandments).

This year, we are trying something different--a service called Rimon (Day 2 Rosh HaShanah, 9/6) which Hazzan Ben-Yehuda and I are going to be leading. What will be different?

get home for an earlier lunch or catch the end of Musaf in White Theatre.

Rimon is bite-sized: only 90 minutes long (10:30 a.m.-noon). You can Rimon is tasty: Hazzan Ben-Yehuda will be leading (and teaching) us the most beautiful melodies of the season so we can join together in spiritual song.

Rimon is juicy: No formal sermon. We'll have some time to dialogue about the biggest questions of the day.

Rimon is OPEN: Casual dress. ALL ages welcome. If you want – bring quiet toys and books for the kids.

Rimon is inviting: Rimon is open to the ENTIRE community. Do you have family at various synagogues (or no synagogue)? At Rimon you can celebrate together. No ticket necessary (for security reasons, we ask that you bring a photo ID if you don't have a ticket).

Rimon is messy: I love eating a rimon--the juice stays on your lips and fingers long after you've finished.

Our Rimon service is an experiment. It might not be as polished as the “usual” service, but the spirit, meaning and music will stick to you long after you leave – just like the delicious juice of the rimon.

Bring your voice, spirit, family and friends to the Rimon Service--try a different taste of Rosh HaShanah on Day 2.

May You and Your Family be Blessed with a Year of Peace, Health and Fulfillment

Once upon a time very long ago, God created our world; from the stars in the sky to our very first inhabitants, Adam and Eve. As time went on, our world became filled with two very different kinds of inhabitants.

The first kind believed that the best world to live in was their own little world with responsibility for only themselves. Many good and decent people filled this world, but many felt that something important was missing from it. While some felt content, others began searching for the larger picture. The searchers reached out and saw that there can be a completely different world. They opened their arms, hearts and eyes. They saw things that were of interest to them, they studied, they learned and most importantly, began to grasp what was rightfully theirs.

Flash forward to 2013...What is rightfully ours? As a member of the Congregation Beth Shalom family, the sounds of the Shofar heralding the beginning of a New Year is rightfully ours. Coming together as a community to receive God's Covenant, a Covenant that has been the basis and strength of the Jewish people passed down to us from generation to generation, is rightfully ours. Finding new and meaningful ways to fulfill the Mitzvot is rightfully ours, and searching for a meaningful New Year is most definitely, rightfully ours. We can no longer allow ourselves to be a single entity; we have to participate to see a much more exciting picture.

Our goal is to make every one of you feel connected. We hope to make you believe that every time that you walk into this building: this is my community, this is my home.

I have reached outside my world and am embraced by a very special connection to my synagogue...and that my friends, is rightfully yours.

May you and your families be blessed with a year of peace, health and fulfillment.

From my family to yours,
Shanah Tovah.

TORAH FUND

Torah Fund, the campaign of Women's League for Conservative Judaism for over 70 years, raises funds to support four institutions of Jewish learning: the Jewish Theological Seminary in New York, the Ziegler School of Rabbinic Studies at the American Jewish University in Los Angeles, Seminario Rabinico Latinoamericano in Buenos Aires and the Schechter Institute in Jerusalem.

Beth Shalom Sisterhood has a wonderful history of support and generosity. Throughout the year you will hear and see signs of our campaign at the synagogue, such as Tzedakah boxes and brochures. Every contribution, large or small, counts.

New this year will be Torah Fund Shabbat, Saturday, October 26. Aliyot and other honors will be given to donors, and Hazzan Ben-Yehuda, a graduate of Jewish Theological Seminary, will address the Congregation. Please mark your calendar and plan to join us! Would you like to be a part of this project, but you don't know how to knit or crochet any of the 36 rectangles that are required for a completed afghan? Underwrite this project by contributing $5 to cover the cost of yarn needed to make 2 rectangles. Send a check for the amount of rectangles you would like to sponsor made out to Beth Shalom Sisterhood. Put WUA Project on the memo line, send to Carol Yarmo, 6212 West 147th Street, Overland Park, Kansas 66223.

Sisterhood Book Club Meets October 9

BANISHING BULLYING BEHAVIOR Project Continues To Educate and Motivate

Beth Shalom Sisterhood's BBB presenter Marlene Katz recently gave an interactive presentation to 45 members of the Witherspoon Adult Study Group of the Second Presbyterian Church in Brookside. The study group meets weekly at the church to discuss current issues. Katz explained how devastating the effects of bullying are and how they are eroding our society. Personal experiences of bullying were shared by some participants.

Katz also led an activity which demonstrated how powerful small acts of kindness can be in trying to counteract bullying. The BBB committee is now addressing groups of all ages in the general community. For information on arranging a program or learning how to become a presenter, contact BBB Chairman Carol Yarmo at 913-642-1199.

Sukkot is a wonderful holiday for young families!

If you have never had a Sukkah in your yard, check out the Sukkah Project <http://www.sukkot.com> for easy and reasonable sukkot to build in your yard.

Let your children help you decorate the sukkah and come up with an invitation list for a sukkah party. They can also help make and serve the food. With a sukkah party the mess stays outside while the kids have fun in the sukkah!

For fun decorations that last for years, go to a fabric store and purchase a yard of clear vinyl. Get water proof paint and let the children paint on the vinyl and hang their art work. Make chains by stringing popcorn and cranberries.

Family meals in the sukkah are fun and engaging, and if the Fall weather is beautiful, what a treat to eat outside!

I hope you and your family have a Shanah Tovah Umetukah, A Happy Healthy Sweet New Year!

Tot Shabbat - Save the Date - October 19

Our next Tot Shabbat will be on October 19 at 11 a.m. If you would like to sponsor a Tot Shabbat Kiddush ($36), please contact Shira Zigler at 312- 375-5510 or shiramichele@yahoo.com.

Polsky Religious School (PRS)

Hazzan Ben-Yehuda, Director of Congregational Learning | hazzantby@bethshalomkc.org

Opening the Polsky Religious School and Bringing in the High Holy Days are Important Beginnings

As your Hazzan and Director of Congregational Learning, the two most important beginnings lie in September; opening the Polsky Religious School, and bringing in the High Holy Days with you. Over July and August, the teachers have been meeting with me so that I can get to know them. It is very exciting to recognize that our teachers are so passionate about your children and their Jewish education. Patti Kroll and I have been working to plan several special programs throughout the year that will both enhance the learning in the classroom and will also give our HBHA students chances to learn together with our PRS students. I am very excited that I, along with the support of the incredible synagogue staff, have the chance to unite our synagogue family by envisioning and enacting these special programs.

One such program will be a monthly Friday night Shabbat service that is led by both the HBHA and PRS students in one grade (7th grade and under). The night of the specific services, not only will children lead, but there will be a light dessert oneg afterward to give us time to kvell and visit. I look forward to getting to know our students and then sharing with you the pride in their hard work.

Another special event is a Suk-

kot art program that will take place the day after Yom Kippur, Sunday, September 15. Older HBHA and PRS students and the School Committee will be helping younger students to make beautiful decorations for both the synagogue sukkah and their own sukkah at home. Parents are encouraged to attend.

I very much look forward to welcoming in 5774 with each and every one of you. I hope that this High Holy Days season finds you in high spirits and good health and that you welcome this shanah tovah u'metukah, this sweet new year with your Beth Shalom family. Shanah Tovah!

Planned Givers Recognized

R-l: Ron Coppaken, Denise Coppaken, Stan Bushman, and Harold Kaseff

Recently, the Planned Giving Committee held their second annual Recognition Brunch for planned givers, hosted by Ron and Denise Coppaken at their home. Each planned giver was presented with a very traditional and beautiful tzedakah box as a small way for the congregation to say “thank you” to each of the planned givers. Inscribed on the tzedakah box are the words, “L’dor Vador. With gratitude from your entire Congregation Beth Shalom Family”

The recognition brunch and tzedakah gift box represents the Committee’s continued efforts to recognize our congregants for their consideration and appreciation towards the long-term financial survival of our congregation. The Committee is seeking other congregants who would be interested in being an integral part of this process. We hope you will consider an opportunity to discuss this option in your estate planning. You may do so by contacting Harold Kaseff, Chairperson at 913-859-0530, or email at haroldk@transtitle.com.

Mental Illness Anti-Stigma Campaign

Kansas City’s Jewish community is not immune to mental illness which is prevalent in America. According to the National Institutes of Mental Health, “Mental illnesses are very common; in fact, they are more common than cancer, diabetes or heart disease.”

In recent years, our community has suffered loss from the impact of mental illness. Now, in response to that suffering, steps are being taken to address the stigma of mental illness and educate the community about its impact and the resources that are available to help.

The Jewish Community Mental Health Coalition, volunteers, Jewish Family Services and the Rabbinical Association, is launching an Anti-Stigma Campaign at the High Holy Days.

The key message of the effort is: “Mental Illness: It’s real. It’s common. It’s treatable. And it’s OK to talk about it.”

“Mental Illness: It’s real. It’s common. It’s treatable. And it’s OK to talk about it.”

The campaign will give clear insight and direction on how to start and continue the conversation, even when it’s awkward or uncomfortable. The reality for most people with a mental illness is that it’s real, it’s common, and it’s treatable. By placing dignity at the center of the conversation around mental illness, we can only improve our lives and our community.
